By Mike Connolly

Dear Know-It-All: Is it fact or fiction that Warren Beatty is conceited?—Jeanne Atkinson, Stony Point, N. Y.

Dear Jeanne: I don't know who started those stories that Warren attends drive-in theatre showings of his own movies by himself but his press agent says they're all a pack of lies.

Dear Mike: If you know Sean Connery, please tell him to stick to his James Bond movies and quit making stinkers like the one he did with Tippi Hedren. It was for Alfred Hitchcock, I think, and it was so bad I can't even remember the title. What made him do it?—Florin Dominico, Clifton, N. J.

Dear Florin: Money. Also the usual actor's grievance against playing the same part all the time. It won't do any good to talk to him because he has already signed with the Warner Brothers to star in "A Fine Madness"—which I'm sure those sneaks at SMERSH will be happy to know.

Sir: How are you? Can you tell me anything about that mystery man, Jack Webb? Has he any plans to return to movies and TV—Mrs. Lee Scolnick, Philadelphia.

Dear Mrs. Scolnick: I'm about the same, thanks. Jack's contract to do a movie and TV series on the Warner lot just expired. It's just as well because he's been sitting around there doing nothing since last December when he was fired. He later sued, and won a settlement. He plans to reacti-vate "Dragnet" independently.

Dear Mr. C.: I hope you will join me in protesting the appearance of Jack Weston on "Gunsmoke." I haven't heard or seen of this creep since last November, when he tore down the American flag at a political campaign headquarters in Hollywood. He never expressed regret nor apologized, and was let off on a reduced charge of disturbing the peace. He should be banished from the entertainment medium.—Charles M. Bussert, West Covina.

Dear Charles: I don't know what paper you read but the court records show it was all a mistake. To top it, Weston, a World War II vet, swore on the Bible that all his allegiance is pledged to the flag and to the Republic for which it stands, etc. I'll go along with the court's judgment, if you don't mind.

Sir: How old is Carolyn Jones of "The Addams Family" and how did she get her part in the TV show?—Jeanne Holme, Rosindale, Mass.

Dear Jeanne: She'll be 34 next April 28. She got the part because she's so sexy and such a good actress but don't ask me why they make her look so unsexy because I don't know.

Dear Mr. C.: Has Elvis (Continued on Page A-7)
